REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-10 and 16 are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art does not teach or suggest a method of surface treating a cookware article formed of aluminum or aluminum alloy, comprising the steps of (a) applying, (b) exposing and (c) applying as presently claimed, esp., the step of applying a second coating of porcelain enamel over the first porcelain enamel coating after the interior of the article is hard-anodized.

Claim 12 is allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art does not teach or suggest an article of cookware when formed according to the method of claim 1.

Claims 11 and 17 are allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art does not teach or suggest a method of forming an article of cookware of aluminum or aluminum alloy, comprising the steps of (i) providing, (ii) forming, (iii) applying, (iv) exposing, (v) applying and (vi) applying as presently claimed, esp., the step of (v) applying a second coating of porcelain slip of thickness in the range of 30 microns to 35 microns over the first coating, after the interior is hard anodized, and curing to produce a hard enamel.

Claim 13 is allowable over the prior art of record because the prior art does not teach or suggest an article of cookware when formed according to the method of claim 11.

The prior art does not contain any language that teaches or suggests the above. Dorfschmidt does not teach applying a second coating of porcelain enamel over the first porcelain enamel coating after the interior of the article is hard-anodized. Therefore, a person skilled in the art would not have been motivated to adopt the above conditions, and a prima facie case of obviousness cannot be established.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
